

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ALABAMA
SOUTHERN DIVISION

JAMES CARTER,

Plaintiff,

vs.

MEDICREDIT, INC.,

Defendant.

CIVIL ACTION NO.:
CV-_____

CV-11-AR-1272-S

NOTICE OF REMOVAL

COMES NOW Defendant Medcredit, Inc. ("Medcredit"), by and through counsel, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331, 1367, 1441, and 1446, and files this Notice of Removal, removing this civil action from the Circuit Court of Shelby County, Alabama to the United States District Court for the Northern District of Alabama. In support of the Notice of Removal, Medcredit states as follows:

I. THIS NOTICE OF REMOVAL IS TIMELY AND PROPERLY FILED

A. This lawsuit is a civil action within the meaning of the Acts of Congress relating to removal of causes.

B. Medcredit removes this action to the United States District Court on the grounds that this Court has subject matter jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331. This Court has "federal question" jurisdiction over this dispute because Plaintiff's Complaint asserts claims which arise under the laws of the United States.

C. The removal of this action to this Court is timely under 28 U.S.C. § 1446(b). The summons and complaint were served upon defendant Medcredit on March 14, 2011, via registered agent.

D. In compliance with 28 U.S.C. § 1446(a), a copy of all "process, pleadings, and orders" received by Medcredit are attached hereto as Exhibit A.

E. Because this Notice of Removal is filed within thirty (30) days of the first receipt by any defendant of the summons and complaint in this action, by service or otherwise, it is timely under 28 U.S.C. § 1446(b). This action could have been brought in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331. This action arises under and presents substantial questions of federal law, including without limitation 15 U.S.C. §§ 1692-1692p, the Fair Debt Collections Practice Act (“FDCPA”).

F. The United States District Court for the Northern District of Alabama, Southern Division, is the federal district court for the district embracing the place where the state court proceeding is pending.

G. The only defendant named in the lawsuit was Mediacredit. Thus, all served defendants who are required to join in or consent to this removal have joined in and consented to this removal.

H. In accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 1446(d), Mediacredit will promptly file a copy of this Notice of Removal with the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Shelby County, Alabama. Defendant’s Notice of Filing Notice of Removal is attached hereto as Exhibit B.

II. THIS COURT HAS FEDERAL QUESTION JURISDICTION

A. This action arises under and presents substantial questions of federal law under 15 U.S.C. §§ 1692-1692p, the Fair Debt Collection Practice Act (“FDCPA”). That Plaintiff’s claims in this action arise under federal law is apparent from the face of the Complaint.

B. Plaintiff’s “First Claim for Relief” is titled “Fair Debt Collection Practices Act.” Plaintiff asserts in paragraphs 28-32 that Mediacredit violated 11 U.S.C. §§ 1692c(a)(2), 1692e(2)(A), and 1692e(10) and seeks a declaratory judgment that Mediacredit violated the FDCPA, actual damages, statutory damages, court costs and reasonable attorney’s fees.

C. This Court also has jurisdiction over the claims in the remaining Count under 28 U.S.C. § 1367, because these claims arise out of the same operative facts as Plaintiff’s federal claim and “form part of the same case or controversy under Article III of the United States Constitution.” Removal of this entire cause is therefore proper under 28 U.S.C. § 1441(c).

D. Because this cause of action arises under the laws of the United States, this Court has subject matter jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331, and removal of this entire cause is therefore proper under 28 U.S.C. § 1441(c).

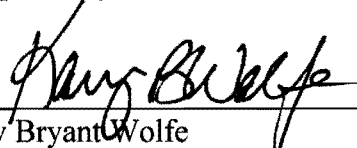

E. In the event that Plaintiff files a request for remand, or the Court considers remand sua sponte, Mediacredit respectfully requests the opportunity to submit additional argument or evidence as may be appropriate in support of removal.

III. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Mediacredit respectfully requests that this action be, and is hereby, removed to this Court, that this Court assume jurisdiction of this action, and that this Court enter such other and further orders as may be necessary to accomplish the requested removal and promote the ends of justice.

Dated: April 13, 2011

Respectfully Submitted,

COMPLAINT

COMES NOW James Carter, the Plaintiff in the above-styled cause, by and through counsel, to bring this Complaint against the Defendant, averring therefore as follows:

INTRODUCTION

1. This action arises out of deceptive debt collection practices of the Defendant that constituted numerous violations of the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act, 15 U.S.C. §1692 et seq., (hereinafter referred to as "FDCPA"), as well as tortious conduct under the laws of the State of Alabama.

JURIDICTION

2. Jurisdiction of this Court is proper under Ala. Code §12-11-30 and 15 U.S.C. §1692k(d).

PARTIES

3. The Plaintiff is a natural person residing in Shelby County, Alabama.
4. The Defendant is a foreign corporation engaged in the business of collecting debts in this state, with its principal place of business located at 3620 I-70 Dr SE, Ste C, Columbia, MO 65201.

5. The principal purpose of Defendant is the collection of debts using the mails and telephone, and Defendant regularly attempts to collect debts alleged to be due another.
6. Defendant is a "debt collector" according to 15 U.S.C. §1692a(6).

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

7. At all times relevant to this proceeding, Defendant was attempting to collect a consumer debt allegedly owed by the Plaintiff to Shelby Baptist Medical Center (hereinafter, "SBMC"), for medical bills.
8. On or about October 8, 2010, Plaintiffs filed for bankruptcy protection under Chapter 7 of Title 11 of the U.S. Code, in case number 10-06033-TBB7.
9. Plaintiffs listed all debts to SBMC on Schedule F of their bankruptcy petition, a copy of which is attached and labeled Exhibit A.
10. Plaintiffs served SBMC with notice of their bankruptcy filing, which also contained the contact information of Plaintiff's attorneys.
11. At some point prior to January 1, 2011, SBMC supposedly sold, assigned, or otherwise transferred Plaintiff's account to Defendant for collection.
12. Defendant received notice of Plaintiff's bankruptcy filing.
13. Defendant received notice that Plaintiff was represented by an attorney with respect to the debt to SBMC.
14. On several occasions during December of 2010, Defendant contacted the Plaintiff via telephone in an attempt to collect the debt.
15. In said telephone calls, Plaintiff informed the Defendant of Plaintiff's bankruptcy filing, and reminded Defendant that any further such communications would be in violation of the automatic stay or the discharge injunction.

16. On January 13, 2011, Plaintiff's debts –including all debts owed to SBMC and/or Defendant— were discharged by an Order of the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Alabama, a copy of which is attached and labeled Exhibit B.
17. On January 17, 2011, despite having full knowledge of Plaintiff's bankruptcy filing, Defendant again contacted the Plaintiff seeking to collect the alleged debt.
18. On January 26, 2011, Plaintiff's attorney sent Defendant a letter on firm letterhead which informed the Defendant of his representation of Plaintiff and explaining Plaintiff's objections to Defendant's collection efforts.
19. Defendant received the letter from Plaintiff's attorney.
20. On or about February 10, 2011, Defendant nonetheless telephoned the Plaintiff at his residence in another attempt to collect the discharged debt.
21. The Fair Debt Collection Practices Act, 15 U.S.C. §1692, et seq., (hereinafter "FDCPA") prohibits the use of false representations in connection with the collection of a debt.
22. "A demand for immediate payment while a debtor is in bankruptcy (or after the debt's discharge) is "false" in the sense that it asserts that money is due, although, because of the automatic stay (11 U.S.C. § 362) or the discharge injunction (11 U.S.C. § 524), it is not." Randolph v. IMBS, Inc., 368 F.3d 726, 728 (7th Cir. Ill. 2004).
23. Defendant's attempts to collect the discharged debt from the Plaintiff were patently false and therefore in violation of the FDCPA.
24. It is a regular practice of the Defendant to proceed with collection of discharged debts because most consumers do not understand their rights and fail to contact an attorney to enforce the protections of the FDCPA and other state and federal laws against deceptive collection activities.

25. Defendant has made a business decision to routinely risk violation of the FDCPA and the Bankruptcy Code, because it is more profitable to do so, even if it must occasionally pay the penalties for violating the law.
26. Defendants' practices not only violate the rights of consumers such as the Plaintiff, but also the public policy announced by Congress in 15 U.S.C. §1692(e), "to insure that those debt collectors who refrain from using abusive debt collection practices are not competitively disadvantaged..." vis-à-vis debt collectors who violate the law, such as the Defendant.
27. Defendant negligently and/or wantonly hired, retained, or supervised incompetent debt collectors and is thereby responsible to the Plaintiff for the wrongs committed against Plaintiff and the damages suffered by Plaintiff.

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF: FAIR DEBT COLLECTION PRACTICES ACT

28. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges and incorporates by reference paragraphs one through twenty-four above.
29. Defendant violated 11 U.S.C. §1692c(a)(2) by contacting the Plaintiff after it knew them to be represented by an attorney "with respect to such debt."
30. Defendant violated 11 U.S.C. §1692e(2)(A) on several occasions by falsely representing the legal status of the debt as one which was due and owing, when in fact it had been included in Plaintiff's bankruptcy and discharged.
31. Defendant violated 11 U.S.C. §1692e(10) by falsely representing that the Plaintiff owed the Defendant money, when in fact they owed the Defendant nothing.
32. As a result of the above violations of the FDCPA, the Defendant is liable to the Plaintiff for declaratory judgment that Defendant's conduct violated the Act,

Plaintiff's actual damages, statutory damages, court costs, and reasonable attorney's fees pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §1692k.

SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF: FRAUD AND DECEIT

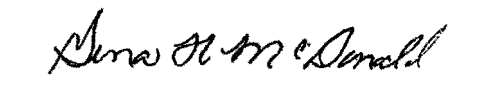

33. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges and incorporates by reference paragraphs one through twenty-nine above.
34. The actions of Defendant averred above constituted intentional misrepresentations of material facts regarding the Plaintiff's obligation to pay Defendant.
35. The Plaintiff reasonably relied upon the Defendant's various misrepresentations to his own detriment.
36. Specifically, the Plaintiff reasonably relied upon the Defendant's misrepresentations that Plaintiff's debts to SBMC were still somehow due and owing, that legal action against the Plaintiff was forthcoming, and that no legal recourse existed for the Plaintiff other than payment to the Defendant.
37. In response to this deceit, the Plaintiff undertook significant personal expense to attempt to defend himself and his family, including but not limited to time taken from work to deal with this matter, investigation of the amount of Defendant's claimed debt, costs of protecting their credit rating, and the costs of consulting with an attorney.
38. Section 6-5-104(a) of the Alabama Code provides that "One who willfully deceives another with intent to induce him to alter his position to his injury or risk is liable for any damage which he thereby suffers."
39. As a result of this fraud worked by the Defendant upon the Plaintiff, the Defendant is liable to the Plaintiff for compensatory damages.

WHEREFORE, PREMISES CONSIDERED, Your Plaintiff prays this Honorable Court issue an Order against the Defendant for the following:

- A. Declaratory judgment that the Defendant's conduct violated the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act, and declaratory and injunctive relief against the Defendant's future violations of the FDCPA;
- B. Actual damages arising from the Defendant's violations of the FDCPA;
- C. Statutory damages of One Thousand Dollars ($1000) for Defendant's violations of the FDCPA;
- D. Costs and reasonable attorney's fees incurred in bringing this action;
- E. Actual damages for fraud worked upon the Plaintiff by Defendant;
- F. Such other, further, and general relief as this Court deems just and proper.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED,

EXPLANATION OF BANKRUPTCY DISCHARGE
IN A CHAPTER 7 CASE

This court order grants a discharge to the person named as the debtor. It is not a dismissal of the case and it does not determine how much money, if any, the trustee will pay to creditors.

Collection of Discharged Debts Prohibited

The discharge prohibits any attempt to collect from the debtor a debt that has been discharged. For example, a creditor is not permitted to contact a debtor by mail, phone, or otherwise, to file or continue a lawsuit, to attach wages or other property, or to take any other action to collect a discharged debt from the debtor. [In a case involving community property: There are also special rules that protect certain community property owned by the debtor's spouse, even if that spouse did not file a bankruptcy case.] A creditor who violates this order can be required to pay damages and attorney's fees to the debtor.

However, a creditor may have the right to enforce a valid lien, such as a mortgage or security interest, against the debtor's property after the bankruptcy, if that lien was not avoided or eliminated in the bankruptcy case. Also, a debtor may voluntarily pay any debt that has been discharged.

Debts That are Discharged

The chapter 7 discharge order eliminates a debtor's legal obligation to pay a debt that is discharged. Most, but not all, types of debts are discharged if the debt existed on the date the bankruptcy case was filed. (If this case was begun under a different chapter of the Bankruptcy Code and converted to chapter 7, the discharge applies to debts owed when the bankruptcy case was converted.)

Debts That are Not Discharged

Some of the common types of debts which are not discharged in a chapter 7 bankruptcy case are:

- a. Debts for most taxes;
- b. Debts incurred to pay nondischargeable taxes;
- c. Debts that are domestic support obligations;
- d. Debts for most student loans;
- e. Debts for most fines, penalties, forfeitures, or criminal restitution obligations;
- f. Debts for personal injuries or death caused by the debtor's operation of a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated;
- g. Some debts which were not properly listed by the debtor;
- h. Debts that the bankruptcy court specifically has decided or will decide in this bankruptcy case are not discharged;
- i. Debts for which the debtor has given up the discharge protections by signing a reaffirmation agreement in compliance with the Bankruptcy Code requirements for reaffirmation of debts; and
- j. Debts owed to certain pension, profit sharing, stock bonus, other retirement plans, or to the Thrift Savings Plan for federal employees for certain types of loans from these plans.

This information is only a general summary of the bankruptcy discharge. There are exceptions to these general rules. Because the law is complicated, you may want to consult an attorney to determine the exact effect of the discharge in this case.

A denial shall fairly meet the substance of the requested admission, and when good faith requires that Defendant's answer be qualified or denied only in part, then Defendant shall specify so much of the matter as is true and qualify or deny the remainder. Defendant may not give lack of knowledge or information as a reason for failure to admit or deny unless Defendant states that Defendant has made reasonable inquiry and the information available to Defendant after such inquiry is still insufficient to enable Defendant to admit or deny.

22. Defendant knew that its conduct violated the FDCPA.
23. Defendant routinely violates the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act.
24. Defendant does not train or instruct its employees in a manner sufficient to enable them to carry on collection activities within the bounds of the law.

25. Defendant's attempts to collect this debt were illegal.
26. Defendant misrepresented to the Plaintiff that it owed a debt to Defendant.
27. Defendant intended its misrepresentations to cause the Plaintiff to fear for the safety and well-being of himself and his family.
28. Defendant intended its misrepresentations to be relied upon by Plaintiff to take action to his personal and financial detriment.
29. Defendant's collection activities proximately caused severe frustration, anxiety, and stress to the Plaintiff.
30. Defendant's collection activities caused the Plaintiff to suffer the following economic damages: requiring him to take time to deal with this matter; the cost of protecting his credit; and the costs of consulting with an attorney.
31. Defendant knows that illegal debt collection activities cause severe hardship and personal distress to consumers, and greatly exacerbate the personal impact of financial problems that are prevalent in the current economic climate.
